DEPARTMENT HEADS REPORTING

Brent Murray (Operations Manager) stated there was a lot of storm damage that hit the City of Linton before the Freedom Festival. Murray wanted to thank the different departments for all their assistance in quickly cleaning up the debris.

Fire Chief Colton Murray explained the Fire Department was very thankful for the help from the Wabash Valley Correctional Facilities help with cleaning before the Freedom Festival.

Public Comments

Cheryl Hamilton (Linton Chamber of Commerce) thanked all city employees for their assistance during the busy time before, during and after The Linton Freedom Festival.

Jon Cotter mentioned all the upgrades in the park including the ADA ramp, sidewalks for shelters to be compliant. A new playground set should be added into the park this fall.

Jeff Sparks thanked the Linton Fire Department for their assistance with the Civitan building during the flooding from the storms.

Linda Bedwell stated the Pool Board was able to get an AED donated by the Linton Trustee for the pool during the summer months. The AED will be shared with the Soccer Fields in the Fall and Spring.
